If you would like more information about how such an arrangement works, please contact us using the contact details at the end of this notice.

In some instances advisers and service providers will be controllers in their own right and will be directly responsible to you for their use of your personal data. They may be obliged under the data protection legislation to provide you with additional information regarding the personal data that they hold about you and how and why they process that data. Further information may be provided to you in a separate notice or may be obtained from the advisers and service providers direct, for example, via their websites.

We may also provide some of your data to the Scheme's sponsoring employers (in particular, Anglian Water Services Limited as principal employer of the Scheme) and group companies of those employers, their advisers and potential purchasers of their businesses. They may use the data to identify and value the share of liabilities attributable to the various employers, to assess ways in which those liabilities could be managed or to propose and participate in liability management exercise such as benefits changes or transfer exercises, or to meet their regulatory obligations such as obtaining audited accounts.

In addition, where we make Scheme investments or seek to provide benefits for Scheme members in other ways, such as through the use of insurance or pension scheme mergers, then we may need to share personal data with providers of investments, insurers and other pension scheme operators. In each case we will only do this to the extent that we consider the information is reasonably required for these purposes.

The advisers, service providers and organisations referred to in the paragraphs above may use personal data to perform their functions as well as for statistical and financial modelling (such as calculating expected average benefit costs and mortality rates) and planning, business administration and regulatory purposes. They may also pass the data to other third parties (for example, insurers may pass personal data to other insurance companies for the purpose of obtaining reinsurance), to the extent they consider the information is reasonably required for a legitimate purpose.

Where requested or if we consider that it is reasonably required, we may also provide your personal data to government bodies and dispute resolution and law enforcement organisations, including the courts, the Pensions Regulator, the Pensions Ombudsman, the Pension Protection Fund and Her Majesty's Revenue and Customs (HMRC). They may then use the data to carry out their legal functions.

In some cases recipients of your personal data may be outside the UK. This means your personal data may be transferred outside the UK to a jurisdiction that has not been assessed by the UK Government as providing an adequate level of data protection. If this occurs, appropriate safeguards must be implemented with a view to protecting your data in accordance with applicable laws. Please contact the Trustee, using the contact details at the end of this notice, if you want information about the safeguards that are currently in place.

How long we keep your personal data

We will only keep your personal data for as long as we need to in order to fulfil the purposes identified above. In practice this means that we will retain your data for such period as you (or any beneficiary who receives benefits after your death) are entitled to benefits from the Scheme and for so long afterwards as may be required to deal with any questions, complaints or claims that we may receive about our administration of the Scheme. We may also retain your data for a longer period to comply with our legal and regulatory obligations.

Your rights

You have a right to access and obtain a copy of the personal data that the Trustee holds about you and to ask the Trustee to correct your personal data if there are any errors or it is out of date. In some circumstances you may also have a right to ask the Trustee to restrict the processing of your personal data, to object to processing or to transfer or erase your personal data. You can obtain further information about these rights from the Information Commissioner's Office at: www.ico.org.uk or via their telephone helpline (0303 123 1113).

If you wish to exercise any of these rights or have any queries or concerns regarding the processing of your personal data, please contact the Trustee using the contact details provided below.

You also have the right to lodge a complaint in relation to the Trustee's use of your personal data. You may do this via the Internal Disputes Resolution Procedure, details of which can be obtained from the Scheme Secretary using the contact details below. If you are not satisfied with our response you can complain to the Information Commissioner's Office at: www.ico.org.uk or via their telephone helpline (0303 123 1113)

The personal data we hold about you is used to administer your Scheme benefits and we may from time to time ask for further information from you for this purpose. If you do not provide such information, or ask that the personal data we already hold is deleted or restricted, this may affect the payment of benefits from the Scheme. In some cases it could mean the Trustee are unable to put your pension into payment or have to stop your pension (if already in payment).
